"OUR DAY" OCTOBER 18, 1917

A Message from His Honour the Lieut.-Governor, Vice-Patron of the Canadian Red Cross Society:

People of Alberta, once again the British Red Cross Society have appealed to us for help.

Not alone are the needs of our sick, wounded, and imprisoned sailors and soldiers to be attended to, but also those of our less fortunate Allies, Belgium and Serbia. These numerous calls for assistance have seriously depleted the funds of the parent society.

The failure to obtain a liberal response to the Red Cross appeal will necessitate the restriction and curtailment of the Society's operations at the time when the needs of suffering humanity are much greater than at any previous period of the war.

Can we, for humanity's sake, have the Red Cross work hampered for the lack of funds?

Anxiously Great Britain is awaiting for October 18th, when in every corner of the Empire her sons will send their ringing answer back across the seas. What will the answer be of Canada—Canada who has already shown her interpretation of the glory of British citizenship? What will be the answer of Alberta? What, indeed, will be the answer of your community?

People of Alberta, do your best for "Our Day".

R. G. BRETT,

Lieut.-Governor.

Government House, Edmonton.

ment? But it's a cinch they are not getting it without some good solid kicking.

The Farmers Union will meet in the Queenstown school Saturday evening, Oct. 13th, at 8 o'clock, when W. D. Trego, of Gleichen, will be present to present a very important matter. All members should be present.

The harvest supper arranged by the Farmers Union and the two Ladies Institutes will come off Friday evening, November 2nd in the Pioneer School. The supper will be followed by a short program of entertainment and a dance. All the good ladies of Queenstown and Majorville are kindly requested to bring the grub which will be served to the guests by the committee on long tables put up for that purpose. The admittance will be $1 per head for all gentlemen. The money is to be devoted to the U.F.A. work in the provinces. As every organized farmer must admit that the U. F. A. as an organization is doing good work for the farmers in general this affair should be well patronized.

In spite of the unsteady weather we have had threshing in Queenstown and Majorville district is practically over at this writing. Oct. 1st, and several rigs have already pulled in. As threshing rigs were plentiful and crops lighter than in most years the threshing season was shorter than usual. While this was not a year for bumper crops the Queenstown and Majorville districts have once more proven to be among Alberta's best grain districts, that is as far as wheat goes. After 10 years of farming here it has been proved beyond doubt that crops can be raised every year providing farmers have their land in first-class condition and no farmer should risk going through a single year without having a good piece of summer fallow to fall back on. He might then gamble on the balance in stubble, fall and spring plowing. I am not able to give the average yield of wheat for the district, but most summer fallowed fields appears to have run around 30 bushels to the acre. A few pieces have run 35 bushels to the acre but not many. New breaking runs from 25 to 30, while stubble all the way from 10 to 20 bushels. Oats has been a light crop in all cases and a good many farmers will have to buy oats. However, there is one field of wheat in a class all by itself. This field consists of 25 acres and belongs to Mr. Phil Brown and is on the Reserve. This field actually yielded 53 bushels to the acre. The yield was so unusual for this year that several measurements were made and it even proved that the field contained less than 25 acres thus making the yield more than 53 bushels. If Mr. Brown would tell the rest of us how the trick was done we would feel very grateful, for when you can raise 53 bushels per acre at $2 a bushel or $106 an acre on $40 an acre land, farming is a well-paying business.

Fitness Demand Causes Surprise

The operation of the Military Service Act, as it has been explained in the press by the Military Service Council has aroused considerable interest throughout the country. Many people, according to reports reaching official quarters at Ottawa, are surprised at the importance assumed by physical fitness in the make up of armies for active service.

As a matter of fact, physical condition is all important in the case of a soldier, explains a high official of the Militia Department. You will rarely find a veteran soldier who is not possessed of an extremely strong constitution. For the onerous duties of fighting in the trenches, men must be in perfect condition and that is why a certain percentage only of many thousands of reserves is available at any time for immediate reinforcement. Men who are not in category "A1" when the call comes cannot be taken.

To many men, indeed, it is one of the attractions of military life that rugged health is demanded of those who would go to the front—where the vast majority of soldiers in training are always eager to go.

NAMAKA

Threshing is drawing to a close in this district. Namaka Farm expects to finish this week.

The Harvest Festival service was held in the I.O.O.F. hall on Sunday last. The service was conducted by the Rev Canon Bathurst Hall. Strathmore choir rendered the musical part of the service. Owing to Mr. Lambert being indisposed, Mrs. Winspear took his place at the piano at short notice.

At the annual meeting of the Namaka branch of the Red Cross Society, the secretary was able to report that $1,842.50 had been contributed to Red Cross Funds after paying all local expenses. This was considered very satisfactory for the year. The following officers were elected:

Mrs. Bell, president.
Mrs. White, 1st vice president.
Mrs. Marcum, 2nd vice president.
Mrs. Wooster, hon. secretary.
Mrs. T. A. Thorssen, hon. treasurer.
Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Pinkerton were appointed auditors.

LOVE NO REASON FOR HUSBAND'S MEENESS

Football Husband Who Let Wife's Whine Rule Was Rebuked by Her —Reason For Harping—

It isn't certain that the man who allows himself to be humped by his nature weak-willed. There are cases of men who seem as perfect brats to an over-protected mother or an ad-oring sister, but marriage in some way seems to "take the brats." The reason is not difficult to explain. "Possibly" or "allowing oneself to be humped" is, like other vices, merely a matter of habit. Maybe a mother yields to her son's every whim, and she has created a character that will dominate her.

Later there comes the sweetest into the man's life. She is to him something entirely new in womanhood, because man rarely places the girl with whom they have fallen in love in the same category as the woman at home. Occasionally his intense love causes him to accept her will as law, and in order to keep her happy and content, becomes a mere puppet pulled by a bit of string. The habit grows, and as a husband, he is humped.

"Don't bring that man here again," Fred's mother heard him tell a young wife. Now "that man" was Fred's best friend; but at the moment his young wife was the only one to be pleased, and he parted with his charm from boyhood. Later he regretted his act, and for some time the pain met at the club, and the husband pretended to his wife that he was working late.
As time went on he found that his life was becoming one long round of deceit, through fear of his wife's tongue. "Why didn't you tell me the truth?" queried the woman when one day the "act" came out of the bag.
"Because I thought you wouldn't let me do what I wanted," he answered.
"I wouldn't let you? Why, if I were a man I'd be ashamed to own that I couldn't do what I liked in my own house. I'd have a lot more respect for you if you'd prove yourself a man." These words caused the man to think, and he adopted another attitude at home. The consequence was, things went far more comfortably. Marriage is a partnership, and the "partners" in the concern should work together each for the other's happiness.

ABOUT HEADACHES

Warning That Something is Seriously Wrong With the Human System

Headache is one of the most common ailments. Even people in imperatively good health are subject at times to this malady. The majority of people believe the trouble is located in the head itself. This, however, is rarely the case. There are numerous causes of headache and they cannot be removed by smelling salts, for heat, cold towels and headache powders.

Headache may come from defective teeth or eye, from acute digestive disturbances, from a sluggish action of the liver and intestinal canal, long continued irritation of the nasal cavities, high blood pressure or other causes as widely varied as those mentioned.

Constantly recurring headaches may also be indications of systemic disturbances of some other part of the body. The cause, more serious than the headache itself, should be found and cured. Often the immediate cause of headache is over stimulation of the heart.

Under heart stimulation accompanies a number of organic disturbances and results in abnormally high blood pressure in the brain; the majority of the headache remedies which are offered for sale contain some powerful heart depressant which only brings temporary relief. There is always danger, however, in the use by the patient of any drug which is substantially strong to have the result when there is some weakness of the heart. Serious or even fatal results may come from constant use and they cannot effect a cure.

A Just Complaint
Blood, reduced just because you mean to say you won't give me any money back for this book just because I have read it. You know you advertise that it is your aim to have only satisfied customers."

"Yes, madam, but what is the matter? Is the print imperfect, or anything like that?"

"No."

"Then why are you not satisfied with the novel?"

"Why I don't like the way it ends."

BUY AN IRRIGATED FARM FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall, and in more good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of feeders, which insures good returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever intelligently applied.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record. For full particulars apply to

You can buy irrigated land from the Can-

Get Behind the Wheel of a Ford and Drive

TRY it just once! Ask your friend to let you "pilot" his car on an open stretch. You'll like it, and will be surprised how easily this Ford is handled and driven.

If you have never felt the thrill of driving your own car, there is something good in store for you. It is vastly different from just riding—being a passenger. And especially so if you drive a Ford.

Young boys, girls, women and even grandfathers—thousands of them—are driving Ford cars and enjoying it. A Ford starts and starts in traffic with exceptional ease and smoothness, while on country roads and hills its strength and power show to advantage.

Buy a Ford and you will want to be behind "the wheel" constantly.

BIG STATION BUFFETS

Perceives Work Hard to Give Travelling Soldiers Comfort

The idea of providing from buffets organized with Lady Linerick. In the early days of the war, while helping the British Reception Committee at Victoria Station, she saw the first British soldiers arrive from the trenches, weary and stained, and with no one to greet them. Lady Linerick was so touched by the men's fatigue and loneliness that she immediately went up to one man and shook his hand. Thereafter Lady Linerick and Miss Butler took the soldiers into the buffet room, where they were given tea with tea and coffee, and plotted their train.

There are now buffets now at most of the London stations, and at Liverpool, Preston, Falmouth, New South and Kingsbridge (Dublin), and other places. Linerick's section, where soldiers were paying 6 cents for a cup of tea, and where the free buffet has been catered for over 2,000 men in a month, is declared by Lady Linerick to be the oddest railway station in the kingdom. Buffets at Holyhead and Southampton are badly needed.

The buffet at London Bridge serves nearly 40,000 men monthly. 4,000 were served in one day at Christmas.
When troops are expected the buffet staff serves suppers at one in the morning. All the soldiers are volunteers. Lady Linerick's buffet is open at night and has washed the men out with a soap in the small hours.
With 300 bags of sandwiches and cakes in twenty minutes at 4 a.m. for a departing troop train. Queen Alexandra has twice served the soldiers at London Bridge.

The men are given hot coffee, tea, sandwiches, cakes, fruit, chocolate, sweets, mittens, writing paper, and a packet of cigarettes is given to each on their way to the front. The buff-ets are supported by public gifts of money or kind.

HONORS SOUTH AFRICA

Gorgeous Caskets From New Zealand

For Bata and Bata

The city of Auckland, New Zealand, determined to send, as a proof of their admiration for the conquest of German Southwest Africa, presents to General Botha and Bata, and these have been prepared. To General Botha goes an address on vellum, exquisitely illuminated, and enclosed in a silver casket that stands on a base of three New Zealand woods—kauri, totara and rimu. The casket is inlaid with silver and is of great weight.
Above is a block of granite on which is inscribed the names of the various regiments that fought in the war, and the South African and New Zealand flags. The casket is of great weight and is a beautiful representation of the war, and this is inlaid on the lid of the casket is a mounted trophy of a gold pig. The message of the recipient is done on gold, and gold-bordered panels on the sides of the

"Gaspie Cavalry"

When the history of the war comes to be written it will be found that a great part of the war was fought in the name. We hear little enough about the latter now, but it would astonish a good many folk if the number of casualties in service were known, and the great numbers still in the service of manufacture. For thirty years military opinion did not seem to be all favorable to the Victoria, but the wonderfully changed conditions of warfare since last our experts had real practice have altered a good many views. A considerable proportion of the army are now known in the service of the "Gaspie Cavalry," and they will be heard of for certain before the campaign is over.

These Men Will Help You Decide

Are you liable to be selected for service under the Military Service Act?

The answer to this question is being made readily available for you.
Remember that the first class to be called includes only men between the ages of 20 and 34, both inclusive, who are unmarried or widowers without children, those married after July 5, 1917, being deemed single for the purposes of the Act.

Medical Boards are now being established throughout Canada. These Boards will examine, free of charge and obligation, all men who wish to be examined as to their physical fitness for military service. They will tell you in a very short time whether your physical condition absolves you from the call or makes you liable for selection.

It is important that you obtain this information as soon as possible.
A certificate of unfitness from a Medical Board will secure for you freedom from responsibility under the Military Service Act from any Exemption Tribunal. A certificate of fitness will not preclude an appeal for exemption on any ground.

In order that you may be able to plan your future with certainty, visit a Medical Board as soon as possible and find out if you are liable to be selected.
Your family and your employer are interested as well as yourself.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The Pacific C.M. Storage is paying Calgary market prices for logs.

Miss Florence Whithart came from Calgary to spend Thanksgiving at her home.

Miss Emma Jones arrived from Calgary Friday to spend a few days with her parents.

D. L. McLeod is unloading a car load of 1918 Chevrolet cars and you cannot miss reading his ad.

Saturday next T. H. Beach will auction 18 well-broke draft horses at Roy M. Allen's at 12 noon, belonging to Harry Reed.

Masters Lewis and Teddy Bartsch and Levitt Ramsey were down from a Calgary college to spend Thanksgiving holidays with their parents.

Thanksgiving services will be held in St. Andrew's Anglican Church next Sunday, October 14th, both morning and evening. In the morning at 11 and in the evening at 7.30. There will be a celebration of Holy Communion at the close of the morning service. All are cordially invited to join in these services of Thanksgiving. Let us pray for mercies and blessings vouchsafed to us.

If you want to buy furniture at a wholesale house and at wholesale prices see G. W. Evans.

Next Wednesday, October 17th, a new sixteen serial performance starts in the Opera House and will continue every Wednesday evening at 8.30 for the sixteen weeks. The serial is titled "Jimmie Dale alias The Grey Seal", sometimes known as E. K. Lincoln. His counterpart is Edna Hunter, Paul Panzer and Doris Mitchell. He is Raffles, Robin Hood and Arsene Lupin, pulled into one. He is wanted for a series of exciting offences against society committed in the sixteen-two real episodes. Don't miss the first next Wednesday.

The steps being taken in Western Canada to increase food production manifest themselves in many ways. Among the latest is a request made by the Lethbridge Board of Trade to the Canadian Pacific Railway that the company should continue to flow irrigation water in the ditches beyond the usual time this fall to enable farmers to fall-irrigate their lands for the purpose of increasing the crops of 1918. Similar representations have been made by settlers in the eastern section of C. P. R. irrigation block. In both cases the company has shown its desire to co-operate with the farmers in increasing production by agreeing to the request that water should be supplied through the ditches after Sept. 30th, which is officially the end of the irrigation season.

F. E. Johnson is spending a few weeks holidays with his thirteen friends. After an absence of four years he said, "There is nothing new in Gleichen that I did not know about when I arrived, for we have read The Call regularly. The Post Office block was the first new building of importance after I left. I read the first building that took the place of those destroyed and in fact I knew where to look for every new business building and dwelling place, and knew where the new men were who took charge wherever a business change has taken place." Mr. Johnson was formerly employed in S. A. Hall's store and has spent most of his time in Montreal since leaving Gleichen. He hopes to locate a wholesale business in either Calgary or Edmonton and would like to return to the west to live. Speaking of conscription he said people in the West have little knowledge of the feeling openly expressed in Montreal on the subject.

Look out for Miss Larkin's auction sale of household and miscellaneous goods on Saturday, Oct. 13, at 2 p.m. See posters.
